LEED Certification

Innovation in Design

• Sustainable design strategies is always evolving & improving
• Recognizes projects for innovative building features & sustainable building knowledge
• Strategy that greatly exceeds existing LEED credit
• Not addressed by any prerequisite or credit but warrant consideration
Innovation in Design
ID Credits 1.1-1.4

• Provide design teams and projects the opportunity to be awarded points for exceptional performance above the requirements for certification
• Exemplary performance
• new strategies not addressed by any LEED credit

Criteria

• Project must demonstrate performance improvements for environmental benefit
• Process or specification must be comprehensive
• Formula developed must be applicable to other projects

Innovation in Design
LEED Accredited Professional
ID Credit 2

• Support & encourage the design integration required by a LEED project & streamline the application and certification project
• At least 1 principal participant of the project team shall be a LEED Accredited Professional (AP)
Purpose

• Educate the project team members about green building design & construction and about LEED certification.

How do I know if it is an Innovation in Design?

• CIRs